

Alan S. Peterson MD

alan.peterson@pennmedicine.upenn.edu

Emeritus Director, Environmental and Community Medicine, Lancaster General Health (LGH).

Associate Director Family Practice Residency Program, 1979- 2021.

Medical Director, Lancaster Lead Poisoning Prevention Program 1992- 1997. Continuing member.

Agromedicine Consultant through Hershey Medical School 1997-2003.

Editor of LGH Residency Family Practice Newsletter 1980- present.

Editorial Board and Quarterly Journal Contributor of the Journal of LGH 2006- present.

Academic Titles Elsewhere:

Clinical Asst. Professor Temple U School of Medicine 1980- 2021.

Clinical Asst. Professor Penn State U School of Medicine 1987- 2021.

Clinical Asst. Professor U of Penn School of Medicine 1992- 2021.

Community Activities:

Yearly Lancaster County Science Fair Judge for decades to present.

Medical Writer for weekly Quarryville Chronicle Newspaper 2000- present.

Board Member of Lancaster Partnership for Public Health for many years to present.

Charter and Life Member of Sertoma

Past Chairman of Pequea Township Environmental Advisory Council

Founding Member of Lancaster County Physicians for Social Responsibility

Past Member Pequea Township Planning Commission

Board Member Lancaster County Conservancy 2015- 2021. Stewardship Committee member 2013-2021.

Led ChildProtect Program for 22 years at LGH.

Director Lancaster County Immunization Coalition 2015- present.

Memberships in Professional and Scientific Organizations:

American Academy of Family Practice 1975- present.

Physicians for Social Responsibility 1979- present. Climate Ambassador 2018- present.

Society of Teachers of Family Medicine 1979- 2021.

Board of Directors Lancaster Medical Heritage Museum and Director of Publications 2013- present.

Member Medical Society Consortium on Climate and Health 2018- present.

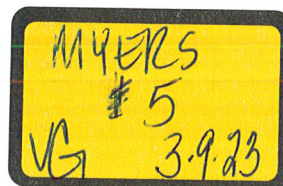

Member of multiple National Environmental Groups.

Education:

Boston University 1964- 1968, BA (Cum Laude).

Boston University School of Medicine, 1968- 1972, MD.

Residency LGH Family Practice 1972- 1975.

Board Certified thereafter in Family Medicine and in Geriatrics.

Awards and Honors:

Klemmer Memorial Award 1973 for Journal Article.

Bair Award 1975 on Research into Benign Hereditary Nephritis.

Henry Wentz Award from LGH Medical and Dental Staff 2013.

Preceptor of the Year at Aument Family Health Center 2001, 2008-2009.

PA Immunization Coalition Champion Community Impact Award 2013.

American Lung Association National Volunteer Excellence Award 2013.

South Central PA Medical Reserve Corps U.S. Public Health Service COVID-19 Civilian Services Award 2019.

Publications and Presentations:

Multiple, available on request.

Spoken on television (WTF) and written multiple newspaper articles on subjects of air pollution, radon, particulates.